

QUALITY ASSURANCE POLICY NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF PUBLIC SERVICE

The National University of Public Service is committed to functioning as a value centred academic base for the establishment of the good state, good governance and good public administration. The University aims to achieve excellence through continuous and sustainable development in order to become an internationally recognized leading institution of higher education in the creation and transfer of competitive, up-to-date professional skills.

The educational and research work conducted at the University is characterized by a highly responsible social attitude. Students are reminded of the interrelationship between rights and responsibilities, and they are encouraged to develop a sense of responsibility for themselves, their fellow students, and their environment.

In order to meet the above principles and achieve the goals set in the Mission Statement of the institution, the University undertakes the following:

- Rational and effective integration of the instructor, research and service capacities of the legal predecessor institutions;
- Operation of a quality assurance system to meet the expectations of the maintainer, customers, employees and society at the highest possible standard;
- Educational, research and service activities conducted in accordance with the principles of quality assurance and the quality assurance policies and qualification standards of the higher education system;

- Establishment and maintenance of a high standard organizational quality culture, providing and developing the organizational, personnel and technological conditions required;
- Timely assessment of the results achieved during the implementation process of quality centred management, setting new quality targets and determining the indicators required for the evaluation of further results;
- Continuous development of the quality assurance system of the University, focusing on Hungarian customer needs and international trends and processes.

The governing body of the University regards personal example and commitment to quality a high priority. In order to achieve the above objectives, all the colleagues of the University are expected to familiarize themselves with and consistently apply the quality assurance policy of the institution.
